

THIS IS MY HEART SPEAKING

(music and lyrics: © Helen Botman, Peter van Vleuten)

VAN VLEUTEN

I write the date
And I know I'll always remember
I write the date
And time's standing still
And I see a future of you and me together

I write your name
And my hand starts to tremble
I write your name
And my eyes start to shine
And I paint a picture of you and me as one

This is my heart speaking,
heart speaking
My heart
This is my heart speaking,
heart speaking
My heart, my heart

I send away
My love caught on paper
I send away
My hopes and my needs
And I gently capture you and me in my dreams

This is my heart speaking,
heart speaking
My heart
This is my heart speaking,
heart speaking
My heart

*So if you wanna see me
And know what's really mine
Forget about the words
And read between the lines
Don't set it apart, my heart*

This my heart, my heart, my heart

I write the date
And I know I'll always remember
